

Autumn Seminars

Please find details below of our upcoming housing seminars for Autumn 2008.

DISREPAIR AND GAS SAFETY

Thursday 9th October 2008 - 1.00 pm registration and buffet lunch. Seminar 2.00 pm - 5.00 pm

This seminar will provide advice and guidance on all issues of disrepair. It will cover a general overview of the landlord's repairing obligations and will offer practical advice and guidance to assist Landlords in successfully defending disrepair claims. This seminar will also include an overview of the Landlord's responsibilities with regard to the Gas Safety Regulations and what steps can be taken if a Tenant refuses Access.

This seminar will be suitable for general Housing Management employees as well as specialist staff

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR UPDATE

Thursday 13th November 2008 - 1.00 pm registration and buffet lunch. Seminar 2.00 pm - 5.00 pm

This seminar will provide a brief refresher on the various tools available to Social landlords to deal with Anti-social Behaviour. It will also provide an update on recent relevant case law including decisions on Disability Discrimination and Tolerated Trespassers. The course will provide guidance on new powers due to be introduced including Family Intervention Tenancies.

The seminar will be suitable for specialist ASB staff as well as general Housing Officers and Managers who have an interest in Anti-social Behaviour
